CODE OF CONDUCT

As a participant in the Pacific International League, I recognize that:

- Summer collegiate baseball represents what's great about baseball and amateur athletics
- I am an ambassador of baseball, amateur athletics, my team and my community.
- The behavior of a single player (or group of players) can impact my team and its reputation in the community and within summer collegiate baseball.
- It is my obligation to conduct myself, on and off the field, in a manner that brings honor and distinction to my teammates, my team, summer collegiate baseball, my community and myself.

I therefore pledge that:

- My actions, on and off the field, will be positive and I will strive to be a model citizen, to help create goodwill and a positive perception of summer collegiate baseball, my team and myself.
- I will show consideration for the general public; for other guests at my hotel and for others while in public settings such as ballparks, restaurants, stores, malls, gas stations, etc.

I understand that:

- The coaches and management of my team and officers of the Pacific International League will have no tolerance for behavior that casts my team, summer collegiate baseball and the League in an unfavorable light. The consequences will be:
 - o Immediate release from my team
 - o The National Baseball Congress (NBC) will be notified of my termination
 - o My collegiate coach will be notified of my termination
 - o My parents will be notified of my termination
 - o My release will be noted in any reports to area pro baseball scouts
